LEANN'S WISH: A NEW HOME!

Country superstar LeAnn Rimes got into the holiday spirit by sitting on Santa's lap in Greeley Square Park in NYC on Nov. 30. She serenaded the crowd with three holiday songs during a free lunchtime performance, sponsored by MasterCard to promote its "A Home for the Holidays" sweepstakes, which will award the grand-prize winner $350,000 toward the purchase of a new home. As for her own holiday celebration, LeAnn says she and her husband, Dean Sheremet, are "doing a chocolate-and-dessert party with friends."

JESS' "BIG" MOMENT
Jessica Simpson picked up the Big Stylin' honor at VH1's Big in '05 Awards on Dec. 4. "It's kind of weird. I'm getting a little bit emotionable — emotionable? — emotional about winning a style-icon award," she said.

PRODUCERS AND PALS
Stars Matthew Broderick, Uma Thurman (in a Chanel dress and Gucci coat) and Nathan Lane attended the movie premiere of The Producers in NYC on Dec. 4. "I've always wanted to do something where I could sing and dance," said Uma.

ADRIAN'S GOT THE BEAT
Entourage star Adrian Grenier and his band, the Honey Brothers, performed at the Clairol Natural Instincts Shine Happy launch of Go-Go nightclub (co-hosted by Life & Style) in NYC on Nov. 30. "Adrian looked psyched that the audience dug his band," said a partygoer.

KATE GOES CLUBBIN'
Grey's Anatomy's Kate Walsh told Life & Style she was looking forward to "checking out the scene" at new hotspot Go-Go.
